

FALL 2010 WOMEN'S RETREAT

The Journey of a Woman

When: Friday, September 17, 2010 (7 p.m.) to Sunday, September 19, 2010 (2 p.m.)

Where: Aldersgate Retreat Center – Pacific Palisades, California. Located in the coastal town of Pacific Palisades, Aldersgate is less than a mile from Will Rogers State Beach, a short walk into the trails of the Santa Monica Mountains, and just a block from the shops of Pacific Palisades. This craftsman style home turned retreat center is located atop a hill overlooking the beautiful Pacific Ocean. It offers a place of tranquility and peacefulness for our retreat with a lovely garden and a beautiful prayer chapel. Room accommodations include varying numbers of twin sized beds with shared bathrooms. Delicious, healthy meals will be served in the beautiful dining room.

Leaders: Sister Joann Heinritz, CSJ, M.A., CMT, will be returning to lead us this year after a few years away. She will be joining us after completing a seven month sabbatical traveling around the world. Our very own Nancy Moravec and a creative and inspirational retreat team will be assisting Sister Joann.

Theme: The Journey of a Woman Explore the journey of a woman to herself and finding God at the core of her being. Touching on the themes in the bestselling novel by Elizabeth Gilbert, "Eat, Pray, Love" and Sister Joann's sabbatical travels around the world, this is sure to be an unforgettable journey of self discovery.
